Online ordering

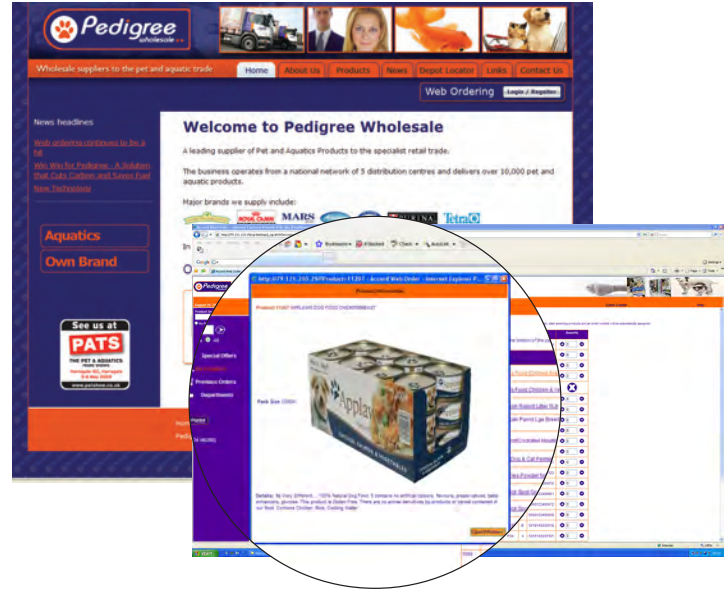

To help make your 'business life' easier, the Pedigree Wholesale website now includes a complete electronic catalogue providing simple online ordering.

A unique user name and password gives you secure access into Pedigree Wholesale's stock management system, allowing you to view real time product information and all product images.

You can now place orders when you want, where you want, both fast and efficiently with a click of a button.

Easy to use

- Place orders at your convenience – build orders through the week and submit at the click of a button!
- View previous orders, even those not placed on-line repeat, amend or start afresh
- Limit view to just the products you have ordered in the past 12 weeks or search the entire 10,000 Pedigree Wholesale portfolio.
- Order confirmation sent direct to your inbox – no need for paper records
- Our telesales staff can view your order as you build it and can support you both in terms of product selection and order submission

Real time information

- Direct access into the Pedigree Wholesale stock management system
- ALL special offers incorporated – you will not miss out on any deals!
